

SHOT DOWN MAN WHO HAD ELOPED WITH HIS WIFE

Raphael Palumbo Instantly Killed Gaetano in Newark.

Raphael Palumbo, of No. 36 Cutler street, Newark, early today shot and killed Gaetano Pirro, of Brooklyn. The shooting took place in the apartments of Mrs. Antonette De Rosa, on the third floor of the Cutler street house. Mrs. De Rosa is a sister of Mrs. Palumbo. Some time ago Mrs. Palumbo eloped with Pirro, and when the husband found the couple in Brooklyn he gave Pirro a severe beating and took his wife back to Newark. Palumbo still suspected his wife. He went to the morning and found his wife and Pirro together. He immediately fired four shots at him, all of which took effect, and then he fled to the second precinct station, where he gave himself up to the police. Pirro was killed instantly.

SNOW BANK SAVES MAN FROM DEATH

Youth, Walking in Sleep or Deranged, Jumps from Third-Story Window.

While walking in his sleep, or temporarily deranged, Samuel Horowitz, a youth of eighteen, leaped from the third story window of his home to the street today and, landing in a pile of snow, was unharmed. Horowitz is one of six children. For the past month he has been suffering from nervous trouble and he has not been permitted to work. Some time during the early morning hours he arose from his bed, broke the window in the front of his home and leaped into the street. The snow pile was so soft that he was not shaken by the fall. An hour later a policeman looking for the pair one hundred and fourth street station passed and found the young chap in the snow pile. Horowitz was sent to the Harlem Hospital. The police say he is insane or at least he was temporarily so when he leaped from the window.

THEATRE BLOCK GOES IN $1,000,000 FIRE

New York Actor Saved As Flames Destroy Harrisburg Buildings.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 1.—Eight buildings in the centre of the business district of Harrisburg were destroyed by fire early today, involving a loss estimated at $1,000,000. The Grand Opera House block, at Third and Walnut streets, in which there were two stores, was destroyed, and nothing is remaining but the walls.

The Duncan Building, on the opposite side of Third street, occupied by three stores and a pool-room, was also burned, while the Park Hotel and the Columbus Hotel were badly damaged by fire and water. The United Telephone Company Building, the Security Trust Building, the Bijou Theatre, Houston's photograph studio, College Block, the Harrisburg Gas Company building and the buildings occupied by the Harrisburg, York and Lancaster Company, the Philadelphia and Albany dentists,

Men's Winter Suits & Overcoats $13.75 Reduced from $15, $18, $20, $22

To appreciate the full meaning of these reductions one must consider the character of the garments involved and understand that at their former prices they were infinitely better values than contemporary garments at equable prices. It is therefore logical to assume that for $13.75 you are getting a suit or overcoat of a very superior quality and at a very radical reduction in price.

WM. VOGEL & SON,
Broadway, Houston St.

and E. G. Hoover, Jeweller, were also damaged. The fire started from an explosion in the Opera House block, at 2 o'clock, and within an hour had destroyed the playhouse and stores in the building and had leaped across to the west side of Third street, to the Columbus Hotel, and College Block. The opera house was owned by a Harrisburg syndicate. John Smith, an actor of New York, who was a member of a stock company playing in the theatre, was retained from an upper window. He had fallen asleep in a dressing-room of the theatre and his escape was cut off by the flames. The Grand Opera House was one of the foremost playhouses of Pennsylvania, not so much from a theatrical standpoint as from the part it played in the State's political history. It was built as a Masonic temple; the cornerstone having been laid in 1872 and was opened by Lawrence Barrett and Edwin Booth, since they played in the building nearly every famous actor and actress appearing in the United States has been on its stage. The building began to be used for State conventions almost as soon as it was built and for that purpose and for other State offices, which included the State Supreme Court, and named by the ratifiers which assembled within its walls. It was the place for conventions in Harrisburg until the Lyceum Theatre was built four years ago.

Nothing But Standard Furniture from Reputable Makers Offered Here

THERE are two ways of making Furniture Bargains for a sale like this mid-winter sale of ours.

One way is to begin months ahead and go back and forth through the furniture market, picking up large lots of standard grade furniture when you can find wholesale bargains in them. Then add just as little profit as you can and still pay for the freight and the trouble—and there you are.

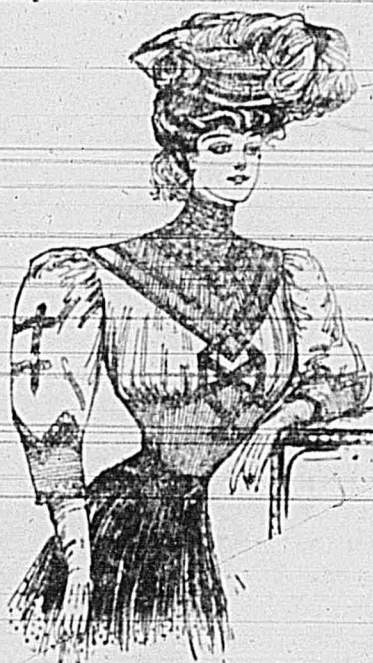

That's our way, and it's the way that much of these astonishing offers came to be possible. But it takes a great deal of trouble and requires very heavy buying, so many stores find the other way much easier.

In addition to these specially bought lots we have for this sale made reductions of 20 to 50 per cent. on every piece of our regular stock furniture.
